2-Day Retreat in Las Vegas Sept 20-21/08

“New Perspectives in Somatic and Relational Psychology”

BodyMind Therapy or “Body Psychotherapy” is the new wave in the healing arts. This exciting workshop will provide practitioners of all modes of therapy the opportunity to work with two internationally eminent therapists, sharing their vision of the future of healing practices.

Learning through shared experiential exercises with ample time for discussion, as well as many handouts and suggestions for future practice...all this will empower you in your personal life and will help you to be of service to your clients in your healing practice.

Who Should Attend?

This program is designed for psychologists, physicians, MFCCs, social workers, nurses, bodyworkers, students, and other health professionals, as well as those interested in healing and transformation.

Irv Katz, Ph.D.

Chancellor, International University of Professional Studies

Dr. Katz is a licensed clinical psychologist and has been on the faculty of many universities over the past 45 years, including years of service as a department chairperson at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas and Director of the Graduate Psychology program at Antioch University in Hawaii. He utilizes Psychodrama, Gestalt processes, Ericksonian Hypnosis, NLP, and Transpersonal processes in his workshops.
